

THE THREE BILLY GOATS

Characters

The Troll

The Narrator

The Very Big Goat

The Big Goat

The Little Goat

Origin

The story of The Three Billy Goats comes from Norway. It's a very old tale that people there have told for many, many years. The story is about three goats that are very clever and need to cross a bridge to find yummy grass to eat.

On the rocky hill live three billy goats.
There is a little goat, a big goat, and a very big goat.

“I am hungry,” says the little goat.

“I am hungry, too,” says the big goat.

“There is no grass on the hill,” says the very big goat.

Scene 1

: On the rocky hill, there live three billy goats. There is a little goat, a big goat, and a very big goat.

: I am hungry!

: I am hungry, too!

: There is no grass on the hill.

: The three goats look around.

: Look at that! There is a big, green meadow across the river.

: How can we cross the river?

: Let's go down the hill and find a way.

Scene 2

: The goats walk down the hill and find a bridge over the river.

: Look! We can use this bridge.

*There once was three billy goats gruff,
They want to eat, no grass is enough.
They look far away, the meadows they see,
Let's cross the bridge. It is the key.
There on the bridge lives a scary troll,
He can attack and eat us all.
We can go one after one,
And if he attacks, we will shout and run.
Trip! Trop! Steps the little billy goat,
I am so small he gives a note.
Then comes the goat that is not very big,
My brother is coming; he's so big and thick.
Here I am! It is my turn.
Come along! Attack and taste my horn.
The troll cries and shows regret,
I am so lonely, I have no friend.
The goats forgive and understand,
It is so kind to give a hand,
To everyone who is in need,
You will be happy and kind indeed.*

Rocky (adj.) covered with rocks.

Hill (n.) a small high piece of land.

Hungry (adj.) wanting food.

Grass (n.) green plants that cover the ground.

River (n.) a long body of fresh water.

Meadow (n.) a big grassy field.

Cross (v.) to go from one side to the other.

Bridge (n.) a path built over water to help people and cars across.

Practice Book

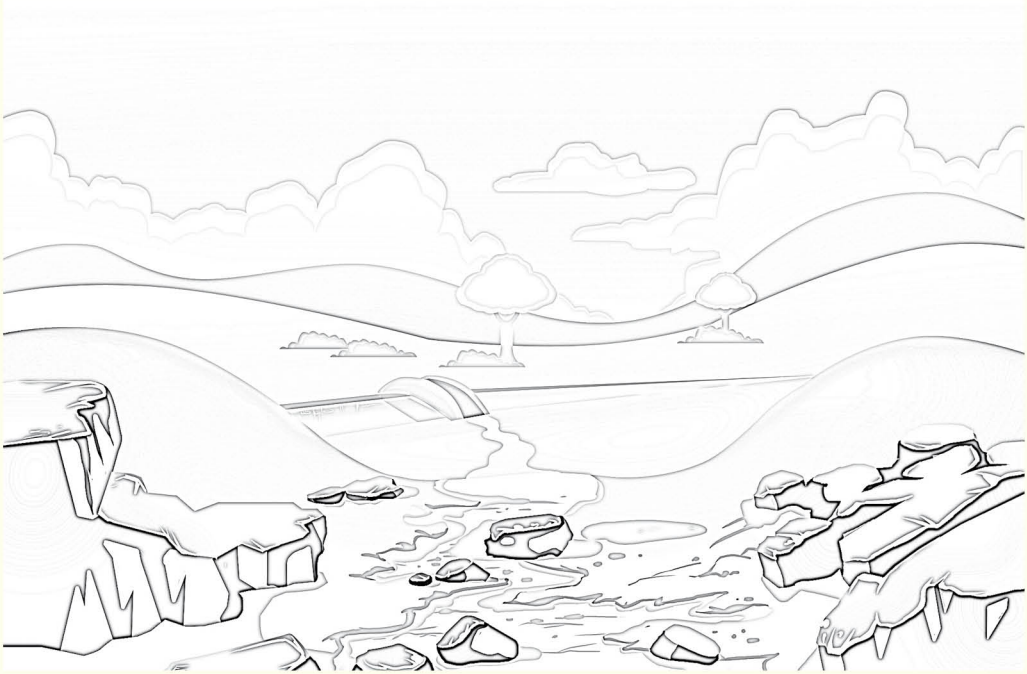

Characters

Connect the dots, colour, and then write the names of the characters.

Where do the three billy goats live?

The three billy goats live

- a. in the green meadows
- b. on a farm
- c. on the rocky hill

Origin

Choose "Yes" or "No".

- | | | |
|--|-----|----|
| 1. "The Three Billy Goats" is from Sweden. | Yes | No |
| 2. The goats want to cross a bridge to find grass. | Yes | No |
| 3. The goats are not clever. | Yes | No |
| 4. "The Three Billy Goats" is a very old story. | Yes | No |

Scene 1

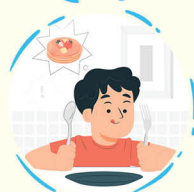

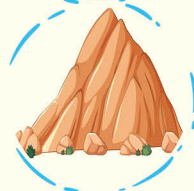

Match the word with the correct picture.

grass

hungry

hill

rocky

Fill in the blanks with the suitable word from the word bank.

hill – hungry – rocky – grass

1. On the live three billy goats.
2. The goats are
3. There is no on the hill.

Match the sentence with the picture.

1. The three billy goats live on the rocky hill.

2. There is no grass on the hill.

3. The goats are hungry.

Tick ✓ or ✗.

1. There are two little goats, a big goat and a very big goat.

()

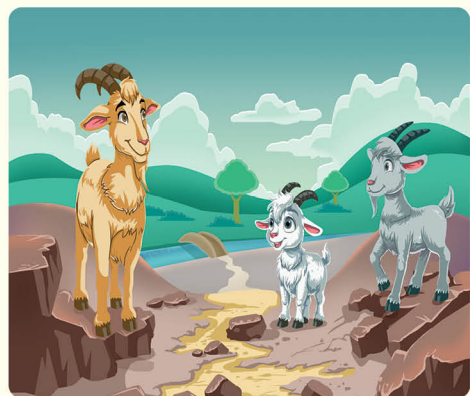

2. There is a lot of green grass on the rocky hill.

()

3. Only one goat is hungry.

()

Find the differences between the two pictures.

More Fun activities

Fill in with the missing letter. And then, match the words with the pictures.

_ridge

riv_r

roc_y

h_ll

hu_gry

mea_ow

And now, collect the letters to find the secret sentence.

.....

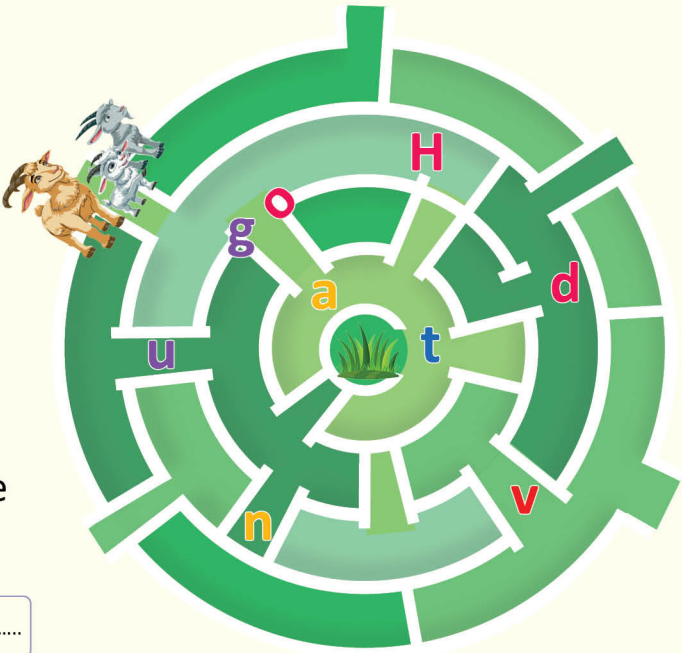

Follow the instructions to colour this picture.

1. Colour the sky and the river blue.
2. Colour the very big goat yellow
3. Colour the little goat white.
4. Colour the big goat grey.
5. Colour the grass green.

maze

Help the goats find the grass.

Now, write the secret word.

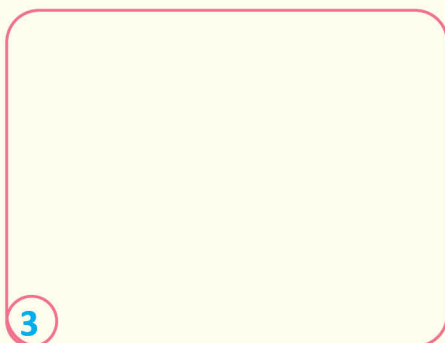

Retell the story using stickers

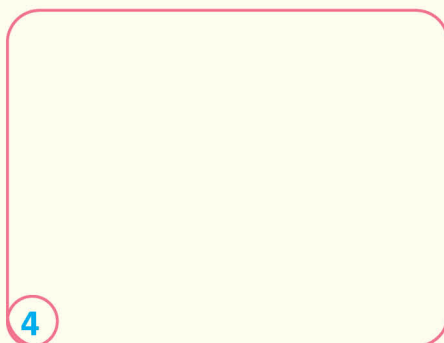

1

2

3

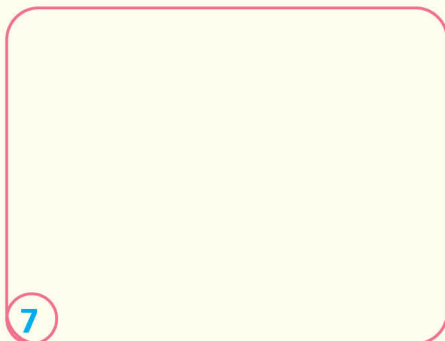

4

5

6

7

8