

Charlie

~ AND THE ~

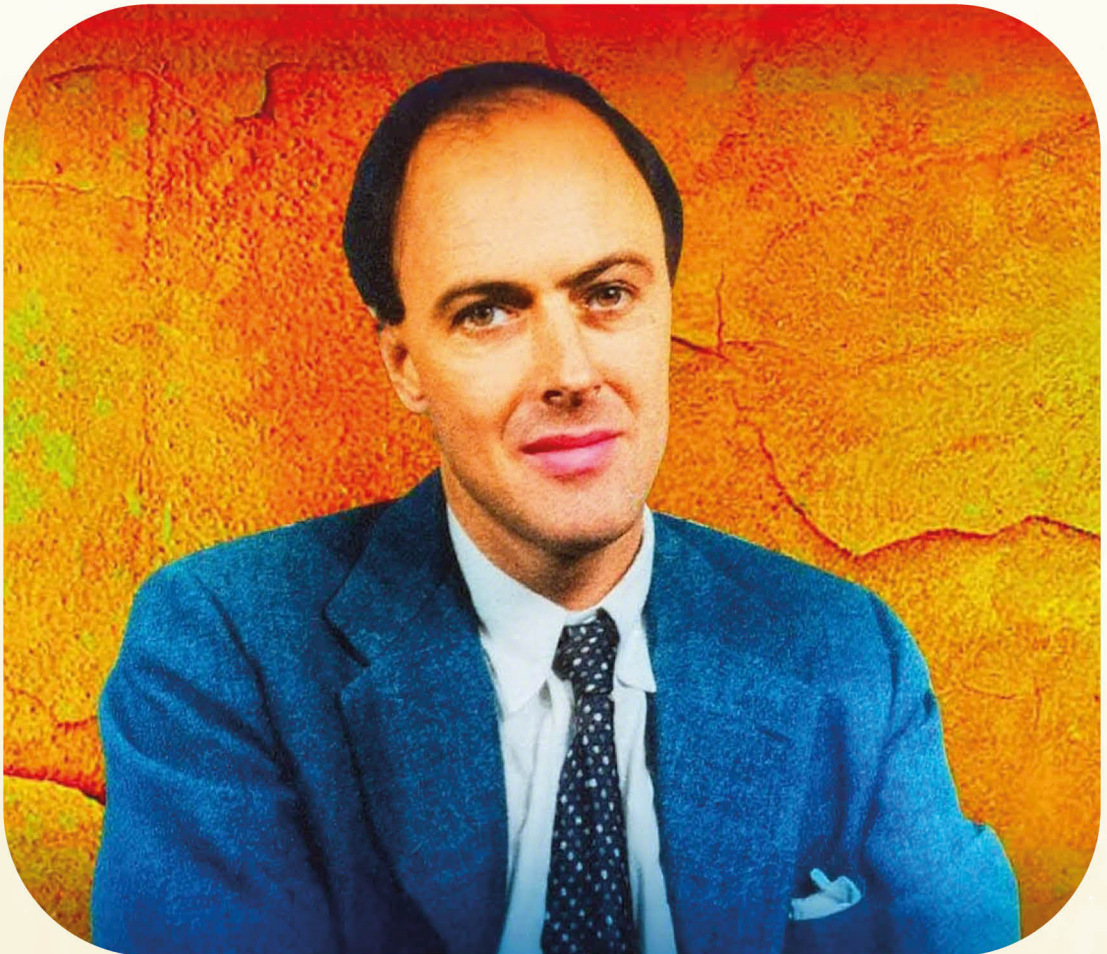

CHOCOLATE FACTORY

About The Author

(Roald Dahl 1916-1990)

Roald Dahl was a famous author who loved writing stories for children. He was born in Wales in 1916 and had a big imagination. His books are full of funny, magical adventures and nice language that make kids smile. One of his most loved stories is “Charlie and the Chocolate Factory”. He also wrote The BFG, The Witches, and Fantastic Mr. Fox. Roald Dahl’s stories are fun, surprising, and full of wonder, just like a dream!

Characters

Charlie Bucket

Charlie is a sweet, honest, and polite boy who comes from a poor but loving family. Although he has very little, he is always thankful and never complains. His kind heart and respect for others help him stand out from the other children. Charlie's good behavior and pure heart lead him to a great reward by the end of the story.

Mr. Willy Wonka

Mr. Wonka is the unusual and brilliant owner of the chocolate factory. He is full of energy, imagination, and surprises. Though he seems strange at times, he is clever and always pays close attention to how each child behaves. Mr. Wonka values honesty, kindness, and self-control, and uses his factory tour to test the children's character.

Chapter 1

Meet the Buckets

Welcome to the Bucket family's house! It's a tiny, cozy home in the poorest part of the city, but it's filled with love.

Here's Mr. Bucket! He works hard every day to take care of his family. And this is Mrs. Bucket! She keeps their little house warm and cheerful with her kindness and hard work.

Now meet Charlie, their son! He's the only child in the family, but their little home is crowded not just with people, but with lots of love too.

Let's meet Grandpa Joe and Grandma Josephine, Mr. Bucket's parents. They are wise and kind, always sharing stories that brighten Charlie's days.

And here are Grandpa George and Grandma Georgina, Mrs. Bucket's parents. They always support Charlie and his parents, and with their kind words, they bring comfort to everyone.

Grandpa Joe and Grandma Josephine, along with Grandpa George and Grandma Georgina, are very old and hardly leave their bed, but they fill the tiny house with stories, laughter, and so much love.

Song

*Charlie had a golden heart,
Kind and gentle, full of grace,*

*Lived so poor but played his part.
Dreams of chocolate in his face.*

In a world so wide and wild,
Not the riches, not the fame

It's the heart that makes the child.
Kindness always wins the game.

*Other kids, they lost their way,
Charlie stayed both calm and true,*

*Greed and pride led them astray.
That's why Wonka chose you-know-who!*

Glossary

Chapter 1

cozy (adj.) comfortable and warm.

crowded (adj.) full of people, leaving little or no space.

laughter (n.) the act or sound of laughing.

Chapter 2

margarine (n.) a butter substitute made from vegetable oils or animal fats.

cabbage (n.) a round vegetable with thick green or purple leaves.

crave (v.) to have a very strong feeling of wanting something.

scent (n.) a pleasant smell.

munch (v.) to eat something steadily and often noisily.

greedily (adv.) in a way that shows a strong desire for more food or drink than needed.

miracle (n.) an extraordinary and welcome event that cannot be explained by scientific laws.

wonder (n.) a feeling of amazement and admiration.

Chapter 3

machine (n.) a piece of equipment with moving parts that does work when given power.

excitedly (adv.) in a way that shows eagerness.

announced (v.) to say something for the public.

constantly (adv.) continuously over a period of time.

Before you read,

Look at the pictures and skim through the book, then answer the following questions.

A) Who is the main character of the story and what do you know about him?

He is

He lives

He wants

At the end,

He is

He gives

He decides

He invents

B) Skim through the chapters and note down the number of the chapter in which the following events take place.

1. Veruca Salt tries to grab a squirrel and is judged a “bad nut,” leading her to be thrown down the chute.
2. Charlie and Grandpa Joe excitedly prepare and head to Willy Wonka’s factory to begin the grand tour.
3. Augustus falls into the chocolate river and is sucked up a pipe, the first child to disobey and face results of his actions.
4. Willy Wonka announces that Charlie has won the ultimate prize: ownership of the chocolate factory.
5. Mike Teavee shrinks himself using Wonka’s television invention, leaving Charlie as the last child on the factory tour.
6. Charlie finds money in the snow and uses it to buy a Wonka Bar, where he discovers the last Golden Ticket.

C) Elaborate and share your personal experience.

1. Have you ever made a wish that comes true? How did it happen?

.....

2. Do you think life is always fair and gives everyone what they deserve? Why or why not?

.....

3. Do you believe people get lucky sometimes? Do you ever feel lucky in your life?

.....

Chapter 1

Vocabulary practice

1) Scan through the chapter, and then match the word with the meaning you have guessed from the context. Use the glossary to check your answers.

- | | |
|-------------|--|
| 1. cozy | a. full of people, leaving little or no space. |
| 2. crowded | b. comfortable and warm. |
| 3. laughter | c. the act or sound of laughing. |

2) Fill in the blanks with the suitable words.

1. The Bucket family's house is small but very because it is full of love.
2. is the only child in the Bucket family.
3. Although the house is with so many people, it is filled with happiness and care.
4. Mrs. Bucket keeps the house cheerful with her kindness and
5. The grandparents tell stories that bring and smiles to Charlie's face.
6. Grandpa Joe and Grandma Josephine are Mr. Bucket's

Comprehension

1) Tick (✓) or (X) and correct the mistakes.

1. The Bucket family lives in a big, fancy house. ()
.....
2. Charlie is the only child in the Bucket family. ()
.....
3. Mr. Bucket works in a chocolate factory. ()
.....
4. All four grandparents live with Charlie and stay in bed most of the time. ()
.....
5. Mrs. Bucket makes the house feel warm and cheerful. ()
.....

1. What are some of the qualities of the Bucket family members?
.....
2. How does the Bucket family make their small home feel comfortable despite the crowded space?
.....
3. What roles do Charlie's grandparents play in his life?
.....

Wrap Up Questions

1) Match each child with his mistake.

- | | |
|------------|------------------------|
| • Augustus | • addiction to screens |
| • Violet | • greed |
| • Veruca | • gluttony |
| • Mike | • pride |

2) Answer the following questions.

1. Each of the children in the factory faced a challenge because of a certain behavior. What do their stories teach us about how our choices and attitudes can affect our lives?
.....
2. Charlie stayed kind and humble, even when life was hard. How do you think his good heart helped him through the journey and why is it important to stay kind no matter what?
.....
3. Charlie's story shows that doing the right thing, even when no one is watching, can lead to something wonderful. Why do you think being a good person is rewarding in the end?
.....
4. If you could make a new rule for the chocolate factory that teaches kindness, fairness, or patience, what would it be and how would it help future visitors?
.....

3) Characters

Use two adjectives to describe each character and explain why these adjectives describe them.

Charlie isbecause

Grandpa Joe isbecause

Mr. Wonka isbecause

3) Plot

Use the following plot diagram and write the chapters and the main events that indicate each step of the story's plot.

